B.E.A.C.H.E.S. FESTIVAL ENDS

but tomorrow is Tuesday and the beach is still here for your enjoyment.

PLAN "B"

What happens if....

on New Year's Eve day the weather is really bad with rain and thunder and the event should likely be canceled? Who makes the decision? How and when will it be communicated to event participants?

#1. Watch the weather forecast. We certainly will. If cancellation is called for, it will be only for that single day/night. The decision will be made by Shirley Mason and placed on B.E.A.C.H.E.S.' web site by 12 noon on Dec. 31st. www.beachesfoundation.org/newyears2012.html

There will also be an announcement left on B.E.A.C.H.E.S. toll-free number: 866-29-BEACH (23224)

Assuming the weather clears for January 1st, the New Year's Eve dinner will be served for lunch (about 1 pm) and the hot buffet breakfast will be served on January 2nd (at 8:30 am)

What happens if....there is a complete wash out due to the weather, other acts of God or government and the entire event has to be cancelled. Will I get a refund?

This is highly unlikely to happen. However, you have three options.

Option 1: As difficult as it will be for B.E.A.C.H.E.S. to refund the entire amount, minus a $25 administration and processing fee, we will.

Option 2: Donate a portion of the event fee (or all if you're feeling generous) to B.E.A.C.H.E.S. and receive a tax-deduction on your federal income tax for 2011. Receive the balance as a refund.

Option 3: Take a "rain-check" credit for the next planned overnight beach event, tentatively scheduled for the Spring of 2012..

Have a wonderful time and a healthy and prosperous Nude New Year!
